

5 THINGS TO NEVER SAY TO A GRIEVING PET PARENT

- It's just a dog/cat. You shouldn't be this emotional over it dying.
- You should get another one, it will help with the pain.
- You should have put that sick thing to sleep a long time ago. What were you thinking?
- Don't feel guilty.
- Other people have much bigger things they are dealing with. Your cat dying isn't big.
